COST OF LIVING ALLOWANCE

The minimum basic rates of wages fixed are linked to the Consumer Price Index Numbers for the industrial workers at 488 points (Base Year 1982=100 series). The Commissioner of Labour shall notify the Cost of Living Allowance for every six months i.e. 1st April and 1st October. For this purpose, the average rise in the State Industrial Workers Consumer Price Index numbers for half year ending December and June respectively shall be taken into account. The details of calculation of Cost of Living Allowance for any rise in cost of Price Index over and above 488 points are specified below:-

1	For all piece rate workers	Rs.0.18 paise per point per day
2	For all Daily rate workers	Rs.0.18 paise per point per day
3	For all monthly paid workers	Rs.0.18 paise per point per day (to arrive at monthly cost of living allowance the same shall be multiplied by 26)

NOTE:-

1. If any category employed in the said employment are left out, they shall not be paid less than the minimum wages fixed to a general worker.
2. Where piece rate workers are employed, the remuneration paid to each of them for a normal working day shall not be less than the minimum wage fixed for a general worker for 8 hours a day.
3. To arrive at a daily rate, the monthly rate shall be divided by 26, which includes the rest day wages.
4. Where the nature of work is the same, no discrimination on the payment of minimum rates of wages should be made in respect of male and female workers.
5. Where any category of employee is paid higher wages than those specified above, that higher wage should be continue to be paid to that employee.
